

Why the government should want to violate my privacy by altering our State Laws to protect us is beyond my comprehension. Why should business dictate and invade our homes without our permission? How do you know they will not abuse this privilage. Does the president allow this kind of personal invasion?